It's All About The Ceremony!

Four colors of sand are layered in a vase to symbolize the importance of the individuals within the marriage and the joining of the two lives into one entity.

The sculpture begins with a layer from each mother. This is to symbolize that the marriage is grounded by each of their families.

The next layers are the individual colors representing Bride and Groom, which symbolizes that the foundation of the marriage is based on the strength of each other as individuals.

The final layer is Bride and Groom's colors combined to symbolize the joining of their lives as one in marriage.
