

Marriage Pronouncement 4

It's All About The Ceremony!

When two people find in each other new beauty in everyday living, and open their hearts to each other by trusting and sharing and giving; when two people share with each other a world of contentment and fun; when they know that they are meant for each other, then two people truly are one.

In as much as Bride and Groom this day have consented together in this ceremony that they have given and pledged their love to each other in the presence of this company. I now pronounce them husband and wife!
