

Simple Wedding Ceremony Script 3

It's All About The Ceremony!
www.weddingceremonypro.com

Today we have gathered in this place of natural beauty to be joyful, in celebration of the relationship of Name and Name. By their commitment to marry each other, they are saying yes to love, yes to caring, yes to the family. May the spirit of God—which is in the blue sky, in the wind, and in the fresh smells of the Earth—enter your bodies, fill your hearts, and bless your lives.

Have you come here in the midst of these natural surroundings to affirm your commitment to each other?

Bride and Groom: We have.

Groom, Please repeat after me: Bride, I promise to live with you, to encourage and celebrate your growth and fulfillment through all the changes of our lives, and to be your faithful husband. May respect for ourselves, for each other and for the earth continue to be the cornerstone of our lives together.

Bride, Please repeat after me: Groom, I promise to live with you, to encourage and celebrate your growth and fulfillment through all the changes of our lives, and to be your faithful wife. May respect for ourselves, for each other and for the earth continue to be the cornerstone of our lives together.

What do you give to each other as a symbol of this pledge? (present rings)

Groom, as you place the ring on Bride's finger, please repeat after me:

I give you this ring, and I welcome you into my life as the companion of my days.

Bride, as you place the ring on Groom's finger, please repeat after me:

I give you this ring, and I welcome you into my life as the companion of my days.

These two people have been drawn together by their love for each other. May they practice self-discipline and patience throughout their marriage, for these are essential to lasting love. May they continue to trust each other, for trust is the foundation on which all love is built.

Since Bride and Groom have pledged their love and commitment to each other before these witnesses, I declare that they are husband and wife. (or, Married)

Congratulations! You may kiss.

I do not claim to be the original author of this script. I am sharing it like this to make it easier for anyone to use.