

Vow Renewal Idea 2

It's All About The Ceremony!

Six years ago, I promised to love you for as long as we both should live. I never imagined that I would face the possibility of losing you so soon, or the depths of despair I would feel at that prospect. Today, we are on the other side of the mountain, and I am so ecstatic that I get to continue life's journey by your side. Once again, I promise to love you, honor you and keep you, for better or worse, in sickness and in health, for as long as we both shall live.
